

The use of the iEdit Network's assets are a privilege, not a right. All users must abide by all standards to avoid loss of this privilege. Usage of these resources outside of the following guidelines require written permission from a manager of our legal department.

1. Any additional policies regarding branding are under accordance with our other guidelines. The terms of service will always override these policies.
2. The use of any imagery provided must remain in it's original design, proportion, ratio, or format.
3. Sources must remain as that of the iEdit Network press kit. Downloads from other sources may not be used or linked to avoid legal infringement.
4. At no point shall the identity of the iEdit Network be affiliated with adult-only or sensitive material.
5. The use of the iEdit Network's logo (no the icon), may only be used officially on approved locations and content.

For special circumstances, you will need to contact the iEdit Network and discuss this with our legal team.